Dear Mr. Pinsent:

SUBJECT: Additional Information Requirements Regarding Engagement with Indigenous Groups

I am writing to advise you that the Canadian Environmental Assessment Agency (the Agency) has determined that additional Indigenous groups may be affected by the Husky Energy Exploration Drilling Project (the Project), and that these potential effects must be considered in the environmental assessment of the Project. This determination was made following careful consideration of additional information provided to the Agency by an Indigenous group and Fisheries and Oceans Canada. The information identified additional potential adverse impacts of the Project on potential or established rights of Aboriginal peoples under section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982, and potential effects of changes to the environment on Aboriginal peoples pursuant to paragraph 5(1)(c) of the Canadian Environmental Assessment Act, 2012 (CEAA 2012) related to: the migration of Atlantic salmon between the Project area and areas where Indigenous groups have potential or established section 35 rights, and communal commercial swordfish licences held by Indigenous groups within North Atlantic Fisheries Organization (NAFO) divisions, which overlap with the Project area.

The Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) Guidelines (Part 2, Section 5.1, "Indigenous groups and engagement activities") lists the Indigenous groups in the EIS for which Husky Oil Operations Limited (Husky) must provide baseline information and both an assessment of the potential impacts to potential or established section 35 rights and/or an assessment of potential environmental effects as described under paragraph 5(1)(c) of CEAA 2012, as applicable. Information requirements set out in the EIS Guidelines relevant to Indigenous peoples that may be affected by the Project are also applicable to the Indigenous groups listed above.

The Agency received your EIS and associated Summary on April 13, 2017 and is now reviewing these documents to determine whether they conform to the information requirements set out in the EIS Guidelines. The additional information identified above will not be required for the purposes of this current conformity review, but will be required on a go-forward basis, including in any future conformity and/or technical reviews of environmental assessment documentation.

Please note that the groups referenced above may change as more is understood about the Project's environmental effects or potential impacts on rights and/or if the Project or its components change during the environmental assessment. The Agency reserves the right to alter the list of Indigenous groups that the proponent will engage with, as additional information is gathered during the environmental assessment.

I will contact you to discuss further. In the interim, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at CEAA.Husky.ACEE@ceaa-acee.gc.ca or 902-426-8697.
